

Starting Out

Episode 3 – What do you like doing?

Julia: Hi, Sammy.

Sammy: Well, Julia. Are you ... erm

Julia: Am I ...? Am I what?

Sammy: Are you ... OK?

Julia: Yes, Sammy. I'm OK.

Sammy: Yes, but ... I mean ... Are you doing anything tomorrow?

Julia: Why?

Sammy: Sorry, I know, you're probably busy tomorrow. Meeting someone already.

Julia: Yes. Maybe.

Sammy: Oh, I see. Sorry.

Julia: Yes, maybe I'm meeting someone. If he asks me.

Sammy: Great! Julia, would you like to go somewhere with me tomorrow?

Julia: Oh, I don't know, Sammy ... Yes, of course! I'd love to!

Sammy: Great!

Julia: What shall we do?

Sammy: I don't know. What about running?

Julia: Why? I hate running.

Sammy: OK. Well, what do you like doing? Oh, but not ...

Julia and Sammy: Cycling!

Sammy: I don't like cycling.

Julia: Do you like music? We could go to the opera.

Sammy: My dad loves opera. He listens to it all the time ...

Julia: Great, so ...

Sammy: But I can't stand it.

Julia: OK. OK. OK, so no opera. Great.

Sammy: What about sports? There's a football match in the afternoon.

Julia: I don't like football. It's noisy. And boring. Hey, why don't we go to the museum?

Sammy: Museum?

Julia: Oh. I see. 'Museums are boring'.

Sammy: What about the cinema?

Julia: Oh, so don't you want to talk to me?

Sammy: Of course I do!

Julia: But we can't talk in the cinema, Sammy.

Sammy: Oh, of course, you're right. Look, Julia, you don't want to go to the cinema, and you're not interested in watching football ...

Julia: Well, what about you? You don't understand opera. When you go to a museum, you go to sleep. You just want to ... run.

Sammy: Julia!

Julia: Look, Sammy, I'm sorry. I think we're too different. We just don't like the same things.

Sammy: No, I'm sure there's something we both like.

Julia: Yeah?

Sammy: Yeah. Probably ... Erm ... Oh, I know!

Julia: What? ... Of course! Shopping!

Sammy: Shopping?

Julia: I love shopping!

Sammy: Me too!

Julia: I know! We could go to the department store.

Sammy: Yeah, OK! And there's that new bookshop near to that ...

Julia: Yes! I'd like to go ...
