Section 1 "I've had a really awful day” – getting it off your chest

Exercise 1

Sometimes we have a bad day – and we often want to tell our friends or family all about it! It makes us feel better to complain to someone. In English we call this 'getting it off your chest'.

Ravi isn't having a very good day – and he tells Tess all about it. Put the lines of the dialogue in the right order. The first and the last have been done for you. See Answers at the end of this support pack.

Tess: Ravi has been complaining since he arrived at the studio.

a Ravi: I don't complain that much. … Well, I do a bit, but, honestly, my trousers are wet and I've got to wear them all day and my feet are wet, so now they're freezing cold. I only bought these shoes last week and now look at them - ruined. I look ridiculous.

b Ravi: I wouldn't. And I'm cold now! I'd rather be cold and dry then cold and wet.

c Ravi: Really? Nightmare. You know, I don't mind rain when I'm at home. I quite like seeing it out of the window. But when I have to go to work … no. Anyway, that journey was really stressful – but I feel better now. Seeing you always cheers me up Tess.

d Ravi: Well, I know, but really Tess I've had an awful journey here. It's OK for you because you come in the car but I come on the underground and it is just awful when it's raining. I got wet walking to the station and then everybody was on the train with their wet coats and wet umbrellas…I hate it.

e Tess: Oh come on, you can't complain about a little bit of rain. Honestly, you complain when it's too hot, you complain when it's too cold…

f Tess: Well it's bad news for you then. The weather forecast says it's going to be like this for the next week.

g Tess: You're such a fashion victim, Ravi. It's a podcast. No-one can see your shoes. Anyway, at least it isn't cold. I'd rather have rain than be freezing cold.
Section 1 "I've had a really awful day" – getting it off your chest

Exercise 2

Here are three conversations that follow the same structure as Tess and Ravi's conversation in Exercise 1. The first column – Conversation A – shows Tess and Ravi's conversation. The other two columns show Conversation B and Conversation C, but the columns have been mixed up. Each conversation has the same structure as Tess and Ravi's, and the same number of "turns": 11. Can you separate Conversations B and C?

With highlighter pens, colour the turns in two different colours. The first 2 turns, and the last turn have been done for you. See Answers at the end of this pack.

Alternatively, you can cut the turns out with a pair of scissors and arrange them on a table.

<td>3 Yes, yes. It's not so bad for you, but then you only ever go there during the week. But on Saturdays it's a Hell On Earth</td>
<td>3 I know that you come in by train so the accident didn't affect you, but I had to just sit there for two hours*</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Ravi: I got wet walking to the station and then everybody was on the train with their wet coats and wet umbrellas… I hate it.

First there was the accident, then the police closed all the roads, and then when they opened them we had to go at 5 m.p.h. for ten miles…

For one thing, there's never anywhere to park the car. Next, when you eventually find somewhere to park, it's miles away from the supermarket, and then, once you get there, there are thousands of people shouting and waving - it's like that Gladiator film.

Tess: Oh come on, you can't complain about a little bit of rain. Honestly, you complain when it's too hot, you complain when it's too cold…

Huh. The traffic was moving too slowly? Yesterday you were calling them all speed freaks.

Come off it. It's not that bad. And if it's so awful, why don't you go to the local shop. Oh, wait. I remember, "there's nothing I want to buy in that shop".

Ravi: I don't complain that much. … Well, I do a bit, but, honestly, my trousers are wet and I've got to wear them all day and my feet are wet, so now they're freezing cold.

Well, yes, it's a good supermarket. It's the people that are the problem. Because I had to get back here by eleven, I couldn't get the cheese because of the queues at the counter, so now we've got no cheese for tonight's dinner, so I suppose I'll have to go and buy some fruit or ice cream or something.

Come off it. It's not that bad. And if it's so awful, why don't you go to the local shop. Oh, wait. I remember, "there's nothing I want to buy in that shop".

Exercise 3

When we tell people about a bad day (or a good day), we often give a list of the things that have gone wrong. And we often use lists of three things together. Look at part of one of the conversations from Exercise 2. Look for the list of three.

"Look, I understand that there's an accident. But they made us wait for ages before we could leave, so now I've missed my breakfast, I've got an extra hour's worth of mail in my Inbox, and it's already eleven o'clock"

Look, I understand that there's an accident. But they made us wait for ages before we could leave, ...

1. so now I've missed my breakfast,
2. I've got an extra hour's worth of mail in my Inbox,
3. and it's already eleven o'clock!

Look at the people complaining 1 – 6. You only have the beginnings. Put these phrases in the best place. See Answers at the end of this pack.

Section 2 – Would like to talk about

In this section, you heard Rita talking about Bath, her home town. What’s your home town like? What is its history? What do you like about your town or city and what do you not like so much?

Write a paragraph about your home town or city. If you want, you can add your paragraph to the “Your turn” comments on the website, or send your paragraph to learnenglishpodcast@britishcouncil.org.

Here are some phrases that might help you:

- It’s in the north/south/east/west of [your country]
- About [how many?] people live there. / The population is about [how many?]
- It’s a very old / new city.
- The oldest parts of town are about a thousand years old.
- It’s a(n) fantastic / interesting / boring / terrible place to live because …
- It’s got great restaurants / bars / shops ….
Section 3 – Quiz – Exercise 1

The quiz today was about computers and computing. Add the vowels to complete these computer words. See Answers at the end of this pack.

The United Kingdom’s international organisation for educational opportunities and cultural relations. We are registered in England as a charity.
Section 4 – Your turn

In 'Your Turn' this time the question was "What's the biggest problem facing humanity today - and why?"

What about you? What do you think is the biggest problem for the world today? Is it climate change and environmental problems or is it something else? Do you agree with what any of the people said in the podcast?

We'd like you to tell us your opinion. Add your paragraph to the "Your turn" comments on the website, or send your paragraph to learnenglishpodcast@britishcouncil.org.

Here is some vocabulary that might help you to express your ideas:

Section 1: "I've had a really awful day" – Exercise 2 – Answers

Conversation A

A1 Ravi: Well, I know, but really Tess I've had an awful journey here.

A2 Tess: Awww

A3 Ravi: It's OK for you because you come in the car but I come on the underground and it is just awful when it's raining.

A4 Ravi: I got wet walking to the station and then everybody was on the train with their wet coats and wet umbrellas… I hate it.

A5 Tess: Oh come on, you can't complain about a little bit of rain. Honestly, you complain when it's too hot, you complain when it's too cold…

A6 Ravi: I don't complain that much. … Well, I do a bit, but, honestly, my trousers are wet and I've got to wear them all day and my feet are wet, so now they're freezing cold.

A7 Ravi: I only bought these shoes last week and now look at them - ruined. I look ridiculous.

Conversation B

B1 Sorry I'm late, but I've just had to wait hours trying to get off the motorway

B2 But at least you missed the meeting this morning...

B3 I know that you come in by train so the accident didn't affect you, but I had to just sit there for two hours

B4 First there was the accident, then the police closed all the roads, and then when they opened them we had to go at 5 m.p.h. for ten miles...

B5 Huh. the traffic was moving too slowly? Yesterday you were calling them all speed freaks

Conversation C

C1 Arrgghh. That Supermarket on a Saturday! Never again!

C2 It's not so bad. I quite like it.

C3 Yes, yes. It's not so bad for you, but then you only ever go there during the week. But on Saturdays it's a Hell On Earth

C4 For one thing, there's never anywhere to park the car. Next, when you eventually find somewhere to park, it's miles away from the supermarket, and then, once you get there, there are thousands of people shouting and waving - it's like that Gladiator film

C5 Come off it. It's not that bad. And if it's so awful, why don't you go to the local shop. Oh, wait. I remember, "there's nothing I want to buy in that shop"

C6 And you know how Teddy and Alex love their exotic foreign cheeses

C7 And I've got a boring old budget meeting at one
Conversation A

A10 Ravi: You're such a fashion victim, Ravi. It's a podcast. Nobody can see your shoes. Anyway, at least it isn't cold. I'd rather have rain than be freezing cold.

B9 Never mind. At least you weren't part of the accident. Better safe than sorry.

C8 Well, at least you got them their exotic foreign smoked sausages! Well done

A9 Ravi: I wouldn't. And I'm cold now! I'd rather be cold and dry then cold and wet.

C9 Yes. Actually, I was lucky there: only three people in the queue before me. And no kids!

B9 True, I suppose. I'm alive and well!

A11 Tess: You're such a fashion victim, Ravi. It's a podcast. Nobody can see your shoes. Anyway, at least it isn't cold. I'd rather have rain than be freezing cold.

B11 Yes. Actually, I was lucky there: only three people in the queue before me. And no kids!

C11 Here you are.

Conversation B

A9 Ravi: I wouldn't. And I'm cold now! I'd rather be cold and dry then cold and wet.

C9 Yes. Actually, I was lucky there: only three people in the queue before me. And no kids!

B9 True, I suppose. I'm alive and well!

B11 Did they? What did they say?

Conversation C

A9 Ravi: I wouldn't. And I'm cold now! I'd rather be cold and dry then cold and wet.

C9 Yes. Actually, I was lucky there: only three people in the queue before me. And no kids!

B9 True, I suppose. I'm alive and well!

B11 They mentioned the accident on the radio, actually…

C10 Well, there you are. Did you remember the olive oil…?

B10 They mentioned the accident on the radio, actually…

Section 1: "I've had a really awful day"

Ravi: Hello again listeners and welcome back to the Learn English Elementary podcast. This is number seven in series two. My name's Ravi …

Tess: And my name's Tess. We're your presenters with lots of interesting things for you to listen to today. But first of all, listeners, I have to tell you, Ravi is sitting here with a very long face – you look really upset, Ravi. Do you want to tell the listeners what's up?

Ravi: Tess is just teasing me because I don't like the weather today.

Tess: Ravi has been complaining since he arrived at the studio.

Ravi: Well, I know, but really Tess I've had an awful journey here. It's OK for you because you come in the car but I come on the underground and it is just awful when it's raining. I got wet walking to the station and then everybody was on the train with their wet coats and wet umbrellas… I hate it.

Tess: Oh come on, you can't complain about a little bit of rain. Honestly, you complain when it's too hot, you complain when it's too cold…

Ravi: I don't complain that much. … Well, I do a bit, but, honestly, my trousers are wet and I've got to wear them all day and my feet are wet, so now they're freezing cold. I only bought these shoes last week and now look at them - ruined. I look ridiculous.

Tess: You're such a fashion victim, Ravi. It's a podcast. No-one can see your shoes. Anyway, at least it isn't cold. I'd rather have rain than be freezing cold.

Ravi: I wouldn't. And I'm cold now! I'd rather be cold and dry then cold and wet.

Tess: Well it's bad news for you then. The weather forecast says it's going to be like this for the next week.

Ravi: Really? Nightmare. You know, I don't mind rain when I'm at home. I quite like seeing it out of the window. But when I have to go to work … no. Anyway, that journey was really stressful – but I feel better now. Seeing you always cheers me up Tess.

Ravi: Shall we get on with it? What have we got today?

Tess: Well, there's Rita, talking about Bath

Ravi: The bath?

Tess: Bath – the city

Ravi: Ah. OK.

Tess: And there's Darryl for the quiz. The "Your Turn" today is a big one – 'What's the biggest problem facing humanity today - and why?' - and there's Carolina, too.

Ravi: Don't forget my joke.

Tess: I wish I could.

Ravi: I know you enjoy them really.

Tess: Mmm.

Ravi: Hey Tess. A horse goes into a bar and says "An orange juice please" And the barman says "Certainly sir. But why the long face". Ha! Geddit? Long face! He's a horse!

Tess: Is that it? Is that the joke?

Ravi: Oh no, you just wait for the big one!

Section 2: I'd like to talk about…

Tess: Shall we move on to "I'd like to talk about"?

Ravi: OK.

Tess: I'd like to Talk About, listeners, is the part of the podcast when someone tells us about something – something that they're interested in or something that's important to them – a person, a place, a hobby - anything really.
Ravi: Yes, absolutely anything. And today we've got Rita with us in the studio. Rita's twenty-one years old - that's right isn't it Rita?
Rita: Yep, that's right.
Ravi: And what do you do?
Rita: I've got a shop – a small shop. I sell second hand clothes. You know, old clothes – mostly from the 1940s and 50s.
Tess: Great. I love the dress you're wearing. Is that from your shop?
Rita: Yeah. This is a dress from the 50s – 1956 to be exact. I love it.
Tess: It's beautiful. I love the colour.
Ravi: Yeah, it's lovely
Rita: Thank you
Ravi: And you're going to talk to us about Bath, right?
Rita: That's right. It's my home town.
Tess: Cool. It's a great place.
Rita: Yeah, um, I was born in Bath, and, ... I don't know, I've never wanted to live anywhere else.
Ravi: Remember we've got listeners from all over the world – perhaps it's a good idea to explain where Bath is.
Rita: Yes, of course. Bath is in the south west of England, about a hundred miles from London I guess – a couple of hours on the train. It's near Bristol – that's the biggest city in the south west. Bath is a city, but it's quite small. I think the population's about, oh I don't know – about ninety thousand people probably.
Ravi: OK. Good. And I guess you think it's a great place to live…?
Rita: It's a fantastic place to live. Great restaurants, theatres, shops, lovely old pubs, beautiful buildings, music festivals. And a fantastic nightlife – but it's quite quiet at the same time, if you know what I mean. It's a safe city. And the countryside around is beautiful – lots of great places to go at the weekend.
Tess: Tell us a bit about the history.
Rita: Well I don't know a lot... but it was a Roman city, um about two thousand years ago.
The Romans liked it because of the hot springs – hot water that comes up from the ground. It's the only place in Britain with hot springs. The city is actually built on top of an old volcano – not active of course. So they built baths there, you know, public baths, using the hot water.
That's where the name 'Bath' comes from of course. The Roman baths are still there – you can visit them. You can't swim, but you can drink the water.
Ravi: {a little appalled} Drink it?
Rita: Yes. Drink it. It's good for you – it's got loads of minerals and stuff in it.
Ravi: What does it taste like?
Rita: Absolutely disgusting. Anyway, then in the eighteenth century Bath became really popular. People went there for holidays. And then later Jane Austen wrote about it – she lived there for a while - if you've ever read any Jane Austen?
Tess: Oh yes. 'Pride and Prejudice' is one of my favourite books.
Rita: It's interesting - as I said, the Romans built Bath, so there's loads of Roman houses and stuff, all under the city. But the archaeologists can't really explore it because they don't want to destroy the beautiful eighteenth century buildings on the top. It's a World Heritage site – and I think it's the most beautiful city in Britain. I love it. I even love the tourists – we get loads of tourists, and you know, it makes me feel proud. I live in a city that people come miles and miles to see.
Ravi: Well - is there anything you don't like about Bath?
Rita: No. … Well, I suppose the only thing is that it's really, really difficult to park in the centre and the traffic can be terrible. But that really isn't the end of the world, is it?

Tess: Certainly not. Thanks Rita. You've made me want to go to Bath again. I haven't been there for years.

Ravi: Yeah, me too. Thanks Rita.

Rita: Thank you. I enjoyed talking about it.

Ravi: What about it then Tess? A weekend away together in Bath?

Tess: Hmm. Let me think about it. ... That was a really good idea for I'd Like to Talk About, wasn't it? It would be really interesting to hear about other people's home towns. If you're listening and you want to write – or record – on audio or video - something about your home town you can send it to us at British Council dot org, that's learnenglishpodcast - all one word – at - britishcouncil – all one word DOT org, that's o-r-g. If we like it, we'll put it up on the site.

Ravi: Can we put some pictures of Bath up too?

Tess: Definitely.

Ravi: Will you do that?

Tess: OK. I'm going to have to teach you how to do it, Ravi.

Ravi: I know.

Section 3 – Quiz

Ravi: Right – speaking of computers – it's time for the quiz. We've got Darryl waiting to play. Hello Darryl.

Darryl: Hello Ravi.

Ravi: Where are you today, Darryl?

Darryl: I'm in Skipton. In North Yorkshire.

Ravi: I know it. I've got an uncle who lives in Skipton. Is it raining there as much as it is here today?

Darryl: It is pretty wet, yeah. But I don't mind the rain. I'm going to go for a walk later with my dogs.

Ravi: Lucky you. Are you not working today?

Darryl: Not today, no.

Ravi: What do you do?

Darryl: I work at a golf course. I'm a groundsman.

Ravi: OK. So what does a groundsman do?

Darryl: We look after the golf course – make sure the grass is OK and all of that. It's like being a gardener.

Ravi: I see. Do you know anything about computers?

Darryl: Erm ...

Tess: Ravi! You're not supposed to tell people what the quiz is about before we start. That's the second time you've said it.

Ravi: Oops. Well, let's get on with it. We're going to play Hot Seat, Darryl. I've got these cards with some words on them and I'm going to give them to Tess and she has to explain the words to you and you have to guess what the words are. OK?

Darryl: OK.

Ravi: And all the words are on the same topic.

Tess: And I think we all know what that is, Ravi.

Ravi: And the topic today is ..... computers and computing. ... Computers and computing. You've got one minute starting from .... now Tess: OK. This one is the thing you hold to move around the screen. Small thing. It's an animal as well.

Darryl: Mouse.

Tess: Yes. Next one. The thing you type on.

Darryl: Keyboard.

Tess: Yes. Well done. Oh gosh. The thing with the picture on it. Erm – the screen!

Darryl: Monitor?

Tess: Yes. Erm. This is something on the computer that does something. ... Sorry – that's a terrible clue. Erm you have these on your computer and they make it do things. You might have one for editing photos one for sending email erm ..
Darryl: I don't know
Tess: You have them on TV too.
Darryl: Oh. Programme!
Tess: OK. Right. OK, the computer and the monitor and everything are all ... Programs and things are software but the other things are ...
Darryl: Hardware.
Tess: That's right. Ah. OK. The little thing you move around the screen.
Darryl: Mouse?
Tess: No, you use the mouse to move it – the little arrow or whatever, you know?
Darryl: Oh, the ... erm ... I know it ......what do you call it ... cursor!
Tess: Right. This one's a bad thing. You don't want your computer to get one of these, it makes everything go ...
Darryl: A Trojan? A virus!
Tess: Virus, yes. Ern ..

{buzzer sounds}
Ravi: Time's up. Well done you two. How many was that? Hang on. Mouse, keyboard, monitor, programme, hardware, cursor, virus. One two three four five six seven.
Tess: Well done Darryl – sorry – I wasn't very good at that.
Darryl: That's OK Tess, thank you.
Ravi: OK Darryl, thanks for playing. We'll send you some bits and pieces. Enjoy your walk!
Tess & Ravi: Bye.
Tess: OK. Still to come we've got Your Turn and we've got Carolina.
Ravi: And the joke.
Tess: And the joke – after this...

Section 4: Your turn

Ravi: Your Turn is the part of the podcast when we ask people what they think about a topic – sometimes serious, sometimes not so serious. It's quite a serious one today because we asked people, 'What's the biggest problem facing humanity today - and why?' So let's hear what they said.
Voice 1: I think the biggest problem facing humanity today is ... um ... selfishness. Um, everybody sits around and talks about environmental issues and problems but very few people as individuals are actually prepared to give up ... ah ... their cars or their way of life to do anything about it.
Voice 2: I think the biggest problem is the divide between the western world ... those of us that have money, have wealth, have resources, and the poor people that don't have enough to live and are starving and they have ... drink dirty water and things like that. I think we should spread the wealth more.
Voice 3: I think the biggest problem facing humanity today is that people don't listen to each other and they don't get to know each other and to understand each other's opinions. All the people that I have met from all the different countries I've been to all want more or less the same things – they want to be happy and healthy and to be able to look after their families and get a good education for their children and I think that war and political problems and disagreements are all because we don't listen to each other and we don't try and understand each other.
Voice 4: The biggest problem facing humanity today is climate change. It's a massive problem because I don't think people understand the effects completely and therefore will not act.

Voice 5: That's such a big question ... um ... probably the biggest thing for our future's I think is the environment and protecting what we have ... um ... I think that everybody needs to look around them and see what they can do on a very small scale to stop wasting things and to try and protect the nature we have around us ... before it's too late.

Tess: Interesting answers. I agree with the people who talked about climate change. I think that's the biggest problem today.

Ravi: What about you, listeners? Write in and tell us what you think.

Section 5: Carolina

Ravi: But now it's time to find out what's happening to Carolina. Carolina is from Venezuela and she's studying at Newcastle University in Britain.

Tess: Yes. If you listened to the first series, you'll remember that Carolina and her boyfriend Jamie are members of a society at the university – the Conservation Society.

Ravi: Jamie's the society president isn't he?

Tess: Yeah, that's right. He's really into saving the environment – we should have asked him what he thought in Your Turn.

Ravi

Last time, when Carolina was at the hairdresser's, remember? – she said she was a bit worried about Jamie. Things weren't going very well between them. What do you think's happening?

Tess: I don't know. Let's see what happens this time. Carolina and Jamie are going on a Conservation Society weekend away together.

Ravi: I can't imagine what they do on Conservation Society trips.
fences and plant new hedges.

Layla: Yeah, it's really cool. We went there last year didn't we Jamie? Had a great time.

Carolina: Oh.

Henry: Ivan, there's a sign saying Brampton two miles. Don't we need to turn left before Brampton?

Ivan: Um, yeah, um, Just a minute. Um, I'm not quite sure where we are. Have we passed Denton?

Layla: Ages ago. .... Ivan - you've got the map upside down.

Ivan: It isn't upside down, I've just turned it round a bit – I can't follow a map if I don't turn it round.

Carolina: Why don't we stop and ask someone?

Jamie: Look, there's a petrol station. Pull over.

... Jamie: You ask Carolina. You're next to the window. Ask for Hallbankgate.

Carolina: Oh. Um, excuse me. Can you tell us the way to Hallbankgate please?

Man: Hallbankgate. You're miles away.

Carolina: Yes, but are we on the right road?

Man: No, it's not this road.

Ivan: So which road should we take?

Man: Go back the way you came, about five miles, then take a right. Follow the signs to Milton.

Carolina: Thank you very much.

... Layla: I'm hungry.

Carolina: Me too

Jamie: Me too. Where did you put the sandwiches Henry?

Henry: They're in the plastic bag – in the back somewhere.

Jamie: Henry, this is a bag of rubbish.

Henry: What?

Jamie: This bag is full of rubbish. ... Don't tell me. You put the bag of sandwiches in the rubbish and put the bag of rubbish in the car.

Carolina and Layla: Oh no.

Henry: Well I'm sorry. It's an easy mistake to make.

Carolina: Are we nearly there Henry?

Henry: Ivan?

Ivan: Well, - I'm not quite sure where we are to be honest. If we're on this road here, look, this yellow one, well, - we should be there by now.

{chorus of complaint}

Layla: Stop and ask someone Henry.

Henry: Excuse me.

Woman: Yes?

Henry: We're trying to get to Hallbankgate. Is this the right way?

Woman: Hallbankgate? No dear, this is the road to Farlam. Hallbankgate's in the other direction.

Henry: Oh no. How far is it?

Woman: Not far. Go back the way you came, for about two miles, then turn right – there's a pub on the corner called the Old Duke. Then go straight on till you come to the main road, then turn right again. You'll see the sign to Hallbankgate – you can't miss it.

Henry: Thank you very much. ... Won't be long now.

Jamie: Hmmm. I just hope the black grouse appreciates what we're doing for it. That's all I can say.

... Tess: Oh dear. Not a very good start to the Conservation Society weekend away. I hope they find it.

Ravi.: Hmm. What a nightmare. It's funny though – imagine throwing away the sandwiches and bringing a bag of rubbish instead. … I hate asking for directions though.
Tess: Men always hate asking for directions. Anyway, we'll have to wait for next time to find out how the rest of the weekend goes. Hope things get better.

Section 6: The Joke

Ravi: Yeah. OK. I'm going to tell my joke, then, I think, that's it for today.
Tess: Come on then, let's hear it.
Ravi: Right. There's this baby polar bear, sitting on an iceberg with his mum.
Tess: Ah. I love polar bears.
Ravi: Anyway, the baby polar bear says to his mum, "Mum, are you sure I'm a polar bear?"
So his mum says, "Yes, darling, of course you are".
And then "Mum, are you sure I'm not a brown bear?"
"No dear, you're not a brown bear".
"Well, what about a black bear then? Maybe I'm a black bear."
"No dear. You're not a black bear either. Look at your fur – it's white."
"Well, what about a grizzly bear, Mum? Perhaps I'm a grizzly bear, then?"
"No, dear, you're not a grizzly bear. Look - your dad's a polar bear, I'm a polar bear, your sister's a polar bear. Of course you're a polar bear."
"Mum, but am I a real polar bear?"
"Look. I keep telling you, you're a polar bear. We're all polar bears. We all live here together in the snow. Why do you keep on asking these stupid questions?"
"Mum - I'm freezing"

Tess: Polar bears are so cute. Did you see that programme about them?
Ravi: Yeah, they are cool, aren't they? Right everyone. That's all we've got time for but Tom the Teacher will be here in a moment so don't go away. Remember that you can write to us at learnenglishpodcast@britishcouncil.org. We'll see you next time. Bye!
Tess: Bye!

Tom the teacher

Tom: Hi, I'm Tom. I'm here at the end of every podcast to talk about some of the language you heard in the programme, and to talk about ways to help you learn English. Today I want to talk about the phrase 'I'd rather'. At the beginning of the podcast Ravi is unhappy because it's raining and his shoes are wet. Listen to what Tess says to him. Listen for 'I'd rather'. What does it mean?

Tess: You're such a fashion victim, Ravi. It's a podcast. No-one can see your shoes. Anyway, at least it isn't cold. I'd rather have rain than be freezing cold.

Tom: 'I'd rather' means the same as 'I prefer'. Tess is saying that rain is better than cold – she prefers rainy weather to cold weather. She says "I'd rather have rain than be freezing cold".

..."I'd rather" – can you hear the 'd'? 'I'd rather'. The 'd' is a contraction of 'would'. Instead of 'I would' we say 'I'd'. Listen again to Tess and Ravi. Listen for 'I'd' and then listen for 'would'.

Tess: You're such a fashion victim, Ravi. It's a podcast. No-one can see your shoes. Anyway, at least it isn't cold. I'd rather have rain than be freezing cold.

Ravi: I wouldn't. And I'm cold now! I'd rather be Tom: Did you hear it? Tess said "I'd rather have rain than be freezing cold" and Ravi disagreed with her and said "I wouldn't".

Now, I want you to listen to Tess and Ravi one more time. But this time I want you to notice the form of the verb that comes after 'I'd rather'. Is it the infinitive or the 'ing' form? Listen.

Tess: Anyway, at least it isn't cold. I'd rather have rain than be freezing cold.
Ravi: I wouldn't. And I'm cold now! I'd rather be cold and dry than cold and wet.

Tom: Yes, 'I'd rather' is always followed by a verb, and it's always the infinitive form of the verb, but without 'to' - 'I'd rather have rain' and 'I'd rather be cold'.

'I'd rather' is a more complicated phrase than 'I prefer' isn't it? But you know, as a learner, it isn't always a good idea to worry about all of the separate words in a phrase – 'what does 'rather' mean? Why is it the verb without 'to'? Why is it 'would'? Well, sometimes it's better to learn things as a phrase and not worry about all of the questions. Make a note of the phrase, and a note of what it means and how to use it in a sentence.

So for 'I'd rather' you could write:

- "'I'd rather' means the same as 'I prefer', but it is used differently.
- It always has a verb after it,
- and the verb is the infinitive without 'to'.

Then you can write some examples, maybe –
- 'I'd rather have rain than cold'
- 'I'd rather stay up late than go to bed early'
- 'I'd rather eat fish than meat'.

And add more examples every time you see or hear the new phrase. Now that you know the phrase, you'll hear it a lot in the English that you read and listen to this week. Make a list if all of the examples that you find.

Now for something different. At the beginning of the quiz, Tess was a bit angry with Ravi because he told Darryl what the quiz was going to be about – computers. Listen to what Ravi says after Tess is angry with him.

Ravi: I see. Do you know anything about computers?
Darryl: Erm …
Tess: Ravi! You're not supposed to tell people what the quiz is about before we start. That's the second time you've said it.
Ravi: Oops. Well, let's get on with it.

Tom: Did you hear it? 'Oops'. Ravi didn't intend to say the word 'computers', he didn't want to say it – he made a mistake. So he said 'oops'. This word is very, very common in English. It means 'Oh dear, what a silly thing to do!'

'Oops' is informal – we only use it with people that we know well. We use 'oops' when we make a mistake, or when we have a small accident – when we drop something for example. We can use 'oops' when we're sorry we did something, or when we're not sorry at all – like Ravi.

We also use it in informal emails. If you send someone an email, but you forget to attach the document that you wanted them to see (that's something that I do all the time!) you can send another email just saying 'Oops', with the document that you wanted to send. Everyone will understand what 'Oops' means – 'Silly me – I forgot to attach the document the first time!'.
Now let's look at another very common word in English – 'about'. You will hear the word 'about' all the time because we use it in lots of different ways. Listen to Tess asking Rita about her home city, Bath.

Tess: Tell us a bit about the history.

Tom: Yes, Tess uses 'about' as a preposition. We tell people 'about' something, or we talk 'about' something. Now listen to Rita's answer. She uses 'about' – but not in the same way. Listen.

Tess: Tell us a bit about the history.
Rita: Well I don't know a lot .. but it was a Roman city, um about two thousand years ago.

Tom: Rita doesn't know exactly when Bath was a Roman city, but she has an idea – she knows it was more or less two thousand years ago. So she says "about two thousand years ago". In this situation 'about' means 'more or less' or 'approximately'.

Listen to another example, Rita isn't sure exactly how far Bath is from London and she isn't sure what the population is either. Can you guess what she says? Listen.

Rita: Bath is in the south west of England, about a hundred miles from London I guess – a couple of hours on the train. It's near Bristol – that's the biggest city in the south west. Bath is a city, but it's quite small. I think the population's about, oh I don't know – about ninety thousand people probably.

Tom: Did you hear the 'abouts'? She says Bath is "about a hundred miles from London" and she says the population is "about ninety thousand people probably'. Because she isn't sure. 'About' is a very useful word! People use it a lot when they're giving directions. Remember Carolina and her friends on the way to the nature reserve? They got lost and had to ask for directions. Listen.

Ivan: So which road should we take?
Man: Go back the way you came, about five miles, then take a right. Follow the signs to Milton.
Tom: The man says "Go back the way you came, about five miles, then take a right".

Why don't you try and use 'about' to mean 'more or less' this week?

OK. I think that's enough for this week, so I'll stop now. I'll talk to you all again next time. Remember you can write to me about any language that you noticed in this podcast. The address is learnenglishpodcast@britishcouncil.org. In a moment you'll hear the address for the website where you can read everything you've heard in this podcast. You can also find some practice exercises to do online and a support pack that you can print.

Right. That's all for this time. Bye for now! See you next time.
